God’s callings are all around us but we don’t always see them.
Creating a Culture of Calling

WHAT IS IT?

A grant-funded initiative to promote a parish culture of calling that helps Christians of all ages discover their purpose throughout life and equips them to live their vocation in the church community, at home, and in the world.
24 Churches Chosen to Participate

Invited congregations reflect a diversity of location, size, denomination, and ethnicity; have demonstrated an ability to provide high quality worship and faith formation for all ages and generations, and provide a positive, supportive environment to implement new projects and initiatives.

THEOLOGICAL UNDERSTANDING OF CALLING

- Our callings in life are a dynamic response to who we are, how we live, and what we give our lives to. Kathleen Cahalan
- Every human being has a calling, whether they acknowledge it or not.
- Callings are lifelong. They evolve over time. They are multiple and changing over a lifetime. They are dependent on the capacities of the body as we grow and age.
- Callings are animated by God’s Spirit active in our lives through a diversity of gifts and charisms, through what we love and are passionate about. God creates, sanctifies, and revels in our differences and our differences are assets.
- Living a calling is transformational for the person and for the world.
Vocation Discussions in Secular Society

- Meaning
- Purpose
- Calling
- Identity
- Belonging

- We’ve lost a sense of God’s presence in our daily lives
- I am the source of my call
- This is all about a focus on individualism
We have a CALLER.

God is the one who calls us – at all stages of our lives
Callings are Both General and Particular

- GENERAL
  - By virtue of our Baptism we are called into community – to love God and our neighbor

- PARTICULAR
  - God’s call can be found in the place that you are!
    - At a particular time
    - At a particular place
    - Gifted with particular abilities, disabilities, experience and associations

- DISCERNING GOD’S CALL
  - Is this a source of joy?
  - Does this tap into your talents and gifts?
  - Is this role of genuine service to people around you and to society at large?
Called to life

In the midst of life’s busyness, we don’t always take time to reflect on the deeper meaning of our lives in light of our faith.

Calling and Vocation are used interchangeably to describe how God works in our lives.

Four practices:

- Praying
- Sharing
- Reflecting
- Listening

After receiving his Bachelor’s in Business Administration from Boston College, he knew he couldn't spend his time in an office. Wanting to get his hands dirty once again, he started Murray Bros Lawn Care & Landscape Services, specializing in Lawn Care and creating beautiful landscapes for the next generation of "specimen" collectors.
• Prayerful discernment – sifting through all the voices and choices facing us in order to hear and follow the voice of God.

• Lectio Divina – slow, quiet and thoughtful encounter with Scripture. Slowly reading and reflecting on the biblical passage three times provides time and space for God’s Word to move from our lips, into our minds, and finally into our hearts.

• ALL: Lord open my heart to reflect on your call in my life and for your world. Amen
Deuteronomy 30:11-15, 19-20

Moses said to the people: “Surely, this commandment that I am commanding you today is not too hard for you, nor is it too far away. It is not in heaven, that you should say, ‘Who will go up to heaven for us, and get it for us so that we may hear it and observe it?’ Neither is it beyond the sea that you should say, ‘Who will cross to the other side of the sea for us, and get it for us so that we may hear it and observe it?’ No, the word is very near to you; it is in your mouth and in your heart for you to observe.

See, I have set before you today life and prosperity, death and adversity...Choose life so that you and your descendants may live, loving the Lord your God, obeying him, and holding fast to him; for that means life to you and length of days, so that you may live in the land that the Lord swore to give to your ancestors, to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob.”
ALL: Lord open my heart to reflect on your call in my life and for your world. Amen

• Listen to first reading of Scripture;
• Choose a word or phrase that strikes you
• Reflect on that word or phrase - What might God be saying to you?

• Listen to the second reading of Scripture
• Choose a word or phrase that strikes you
• Reflect on that word or phrase – How might God be calling you to act through the word or phrase that first struck you? How might you respond?

• Share with one other person
Lord, open my heart to reflect on your call in my life and for your world. Amen.
Telling Our Stories

The Stories We Live – Finding God’s Calling All around us

By Kathleen A Cahalan
We can talk about callings using nouns, verbs and prepositions:

- Noun: vocation, meaning (static, passive and singular)
- Verb: Actions of our lives respond to God’s callings (whisper, shout, nag, push)
- Prepositions: connects words to other words; expresses relationships (by, to, from, in, through, with, for)

- Nouns, verbs, and prepositions are all necessary to storytelling

The Stories We Live
Different Dimensions of Our Callings

Called by God
Called to follow the way shown by Jesus
Called as unique persons with particular history and circumstances
Called from the losses and grief we suffer
Called to give our lives for others
Called in our deepest suffering to carry out God’s purposes in mysterious ways
Called through the people in our lives (vocation takes root in community)
Called together to live within God’s loving embrace, both now and in the live to come

We find our callings within the stories of our lives.
Called to be followers of Christ in community with other disciples

- Jesus does the calling – “Come Follow Me!”
- Worshiper – heart is filled with adoration and love for the source of life (in what way do I worship Jesus)
  - Our worship is the recognition of the goodness and power of divine blessing in our lives – we rejoice, falling on our knees and singing God’s praises.
- Witness – to tell the truth about what God is doing in your life
  - How has God called, nurtured, converted or healed you?
- Neighbor – one who dwells nearby; caring for others beyond one’s family/tribe; the poor, the outcast, and those we despise
- Forgiver – forgive those who harm us and seek forgiveness when we harm others
- Prophet – to declare what is wrong with our neighborhoods and call our neighborhoods back to right relationship through justice and mercy – When have you felt called to be prophetic? Did you embrace the call readily or cringe at the prospect
- Steward – one who cares for the household of God’s creation, accepting it as a gift, not as something we own and control
Multiplicity of callings as disciples

Living a Centered Life – faithful to God in each moment (A life centered in the triune God gives identity and a place to stand in a chaotic and compartmentalized world. The Creator God is present in all I do.)

With God at the center of my life, I know whose I am and can begin to discover who I am.

God’s call can be found in each part of your life, which eventually gives direction, meaning, and purpose to the whole of your life.

- Relationship: (spouse, parent, daughter, friend)
- Specific Roles (coworker, teacher, volunteer, boss)
- Ways of Being (loyal, encouraging, compassionate)
- Particular Gifts or Abilities (connector, thinker, provider, problem solver, blood donor)
Hearing God’s voice (truth, authenticity, integrity)

- God’s voice is within each of us as a source of divine wisdom, mysteriously both beyond and within ourselves.
- God uses the inclinations of our true self, the promptings of conscience, to help guide and call us through decision big and small toward the goal or purpose for which we were created.
The goal of vocation is to find and live out of God’s truth

A truth that takes on particularity in your life, the truth of who you are and how you live.
Search for true self vs. false self

True Self
- There is something you know you cannot NOT do
- Give your life as a witness to the truth about who you are
- Lose our life in loving service

False Self
- Our lives become mired in sin
- Selfishness and Self destructive ways
- Seeks its own good, making ‘me’ important
God calls us in the particularities of our life
context shapes our calling

- All people want to be valued for who they are, not just for what they do. For most, it is a lifelong journey to discover who they are.
- Vocation is God’s call to your life’s particularities: gender, family, ethnicity, time in history, education, opportunities, relationships, culture.
- God calls each of us by name, not in a generic way but specific to your time in life and place in the history of the world.
- God creates each of us to be children of God, but we can only live out our callings within our time and place.
Take two minutes to write the answers

- Have you experienced being called by God? When did you feel God’s presence, nudge, or invitation?
- Have you ever seen God’s hand at work by looking back at your life?
  - The Plan – God as Divine Planner – is there only one way to get it right for each person?
    - God’s plan for all of us is to live and work for the sake of God’s mission in the world
  - The Pilgrimage – the Journey or even an exile
    - Pilgrims experience a call to follow a particular way and trust in God’s companionship, no matter what happens along the way
    - The surprising “ahah!” moment – being awakened to a gift or develop a passion
- How did you discern that calling?
Core Team Commitment:

• Recruit team members to infuse the theological theme of Calling throughout the ministries of the church for the calendar years 2018-2020
• Work in a covenantal relationship with our coach, Melissa Cooper
• Innovate with calling activities across the various ages of the parish, starting with embedding calling into what we already do
• Pilot a new design with at least five groups: children, adolescents, young adults, adults (midlife-mature) and the whole family + one project/design with the unaffiliated/uninvolved.
Vibrant Faith’s Commitment to Us

- Training the parish leadership team at two Convocations in 2018, one in 2019 and one in 2020
- Each parish will have one coach to work with them for three years.
- Resources through web portal (Base Camp and website) that provides and allows for parish development of print, audio, video and digital vocation activities and resources
- Network of parishes online
- $12,000 over 3 years
Vocation is about the whole of your life, Your whole life long!

- Infants called to gaze and behold
- Children called to create, imagine, invent, and delight in
- Youth called to begin exploring identity, developing a sense of self
- Young adulthood called to ask big questions and discover worthy dreams
- Adulthood called to love and work – gaps between dreams and reality
- Midlife called through disillusionment to explore how to serve with greater integrity and service
- Retirement called to reevaluate where I live, who I love, how I serve and what I’ll do
- Elder years called to live with ambiguity, uncertainty and the need for care marked by the need to give and to let go
Called from something, someone or somewhere - transitions

- Being called from entails moving away, an ending, before a new beginning
- Need to trust that moving away is the right path, a calling, even though you do not know the destination
  - Graduation
  - Wedding
  - New Job
  - Retirement
  - Loss – object, relationship, role, function or a community
Brainstorm experiences of calling to embed in 2018 - 2019 schedule

What part will you play?

Visual Faith Experience

“Listen! I am standing at the door, knocking; if you hear my voice and open the door, I will come in to you and eat with you, and you with me. Let anyone who has an ear listen to what the Spirit is saying to the churches.” Revelation 3:20, 22
“When you reach out to follow your calling, the universe supports you with a world of possibilities.”
~Diane Dreher
